

“Discussion on Union Budget 2022-23”

The PG & Research Department of Economics at Kandaswami Kandar’s College, Velur-Namakkal, hosted a thought-provoking Discussion on the Union Budget 2022-23. The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. P. Loganathan, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Economics, setting the stage for insightful deliberations.

Dr. N. Thangaraj, the esteemed Principal, presided over the function, underscoring the significance of analyzing the budgetary allocations for national development. Dr. R. Somasundaram, M.D., President & Secretary of Kandaswami Kandar’s College, added to the auspiciousness of the occasion by felicitating the attendees, emphasizing the importance of informed discussions on economic policies.

The program was structured into two sessions, with Dr. S. Senthilraja, Assistant Professor of Economics and Organizing Secretary, introduced the esteemed Chief Guest of the morning session, Dr. N. Mani, Associate Professor & Head of the Department of Economics at Erode Arts & Science College. Dr. Mani delivered a comprehensive analysis of the major allocations and policy preferences outlined in the Union Budget, elucidating their implications for various sectors of the economy. His insights provided attendees with valuable perspectives on the government's fiscal priorities and their potential impact on socio-economic development.

In the afternoon session, Dr. V. Prabakar, Assistant Professor of Economics and Organizing Secretary, introduced the distinguished Chief Guest, Dr. R. Asokan, Associate Professor of Economics at Government Arts College, Salem. Dr.Asokan eloquently highlighted key aspects of the budget, delving into the rationale behind specific allocations and policy measures. His nuanced analysis shed light on the government's strategies for addressing economic challenges and fostering growth.

Following the guest speeches, an interactive session was conducted, wherein students actively participated in discussions, seeking clarifications and sharing their perspectives on the budgetary provisions. The engagement of the students added dynamism to the event, enriching the discourse with diverse viewpoints and queries. The programme ended with vote thanks from Dr. K. Saravanan, Associate Professor of Economics, Kandaswami Kandar's College extended heartfelt thanks to all participants, esteemed guests, organizers, and supporters who contributed to the event's triumph.,

In conclusion, the discussion on Union Budget 2022-23 facilitated a deeper understanding of the government's fiscal agenda and its implications for the economy. The insights shared by the esteemed Chief Guests provided attendees with valuable insights, fostering informed dialogue and critical thinking among participants. The event underscored the importance of academic engagement in analyzing and contextualizing national economic policies for sustainable development.
